

July 8 1992
Dear Mr. Ray Green:

Connie and I thought the enclosed article could interest you. The Olmstead Power Plant was significant to historians and our family. You are to be commended for your interest in researching water in Provo Canyon.

She joins me in sending best wishes to you and your family.

Cordially

Eddie Dee Adams

When I called the newspaper office to confirm the date the secretary said she would send that issue to me. It is on the way to you -

June 19, 1992

A-4 UTAH COUNTY JOURNAL

U.S. and Russia re: nuclear accord

Iran walks fine line

Utah County
June 19-25

100 years ago

1892 — Two men drowned in Utah Lake on June 20 while dozens of people watched a short distance away on shore. The accident occurred near American Fork when a boat overturned. Willam Mace and a man identified only as "Kelly" died. Rescue swimmers managed to save a third man, Jed Merser.

- Provo appointed a dog tax collector after the city marshal refused to shoot unlicensed dogs running at large.

75 years ago

1917 — A squad of Idaho infantry detailed to guard the Olmstead Power Plant was attacked by a bull on June 23. The bull pursued and attempted to trample and gore three soldiers. The bull also later attacked a horseman in Provo Canyon. Soldiers returned the next day with ammunition for their guns, tracked the bull down and shot it.

- As the first U.S. combat troops neared the coast of France, Utah County began arresting draft dodgers referred to as "slackers."

50 years ago

1942 — WAR NEWS: British troops retreating before Rommel in North Africa began consolidating around El Alamein.

- Former Governor Henry Blood, 69, died in Salt Lake City. Blood was the governor of Utah between 1933-41.

- W. Reinwald Liechty, Provo, completed bombardier school in Albuquerque.

- Charlie Chaplin starred in The Gold Rush.

- Watermelons sold for three and a half cents a pound.

25 years ago

1967 — U.S. President Lyndon Johnson and Soviet Premier Kosygin met in New Jersey to talk over the Six Day War, nuclear arms and Vietnam. No clear results were obtained.

- June 20 — Former Provo resident and Navy pilot Jaque Meiling rescued a downed U.S. pilot in North Vietnam. Meiling, commander of Search and Rescue Detachment #17 ("Green Dragons"), had previously rescued three other airmen.

- Michael Caine and Jane Fonda starred in Hurry Sundown.

Chris Doe
Dr. R. Raymond Green
Helen City, Utah 84032